

Marked-up Version of the Claims

3. (Amended) A method for preventing exaggerated restenosis in a diabetic subject which comprises administering to the subject a [pharmaceutically] therapeutically effective amount of [an inhibitor of receptor for advanced glycation endproduct (RAGE)] soluble receptor for advanced glycation endproducts (sRAGE) so as to prevent exaggerated restenosis in the subject.